

Charlotte Hughes Brown

June 17, 2007

HAMPTON — Charlotte Matilda Hughes Reagon Brown died Friday, June 15, 2007, in York County, Va. She was the daughter of the late Colonel and Mrs. John A. Hughes of Baltimore, Md. She was predeceased by her first husband, Major Paul R. Reagon of Baltimore, Md., and by her second husband, Major Robert M. Brown of Newport News.

She is survived by her son, Paul R. Reagon and his wife, Carmen, of Camden, Ark.; her daughter, Sheila Reagon Burcher and her husband, Charles, of Hampton; and her stepdaughter, Karen Brown Livsey and her husband, Jim, of Falconer, N.Y. Her grandchildren are: Heather Reagon Martin of Newport News; Charlotte L. Burcher of Hampton; John C. Burcher and his wife, Mary, of Hampton; and Matthew R. Burcher and his friend, Michele Fair, of Hampton. She is also survived by her great-grandchildren, John C. Reagon of Camden, Ark.; and Jack Robert Burcher of Hampton. Her nephews and niece are John W. Hughes, Thomas Hughes, Robert Wehr and Louise Wehr Gaston.

Charlotte and Bob Brown were members of Trinity Lutheran Church for over 40 years. Charlotte was active in many historical and lineage societies, including the Comte de Grasse Chapter of the Virginia Daughters of the American Revolution, the Manakin Huguenot Society, the Colonial Dames of the XVII Century, the Daughters of the War of 1812, the Virginia Army Daughters, the Tidewater Genealogical Society, and the Virginia Genealogical Society.

Interment will be private and at a later date. Those who knew Charlotte are asked to remember that she cherished her family, spoiled her dogs and wrote down her family stories.